

If this is such an important story, why not air it after the election? I am a staunch supporter of the first amendment, however the timing of this broadcast is purely political, and is nothing more than right-wing campaign rhetoric. Level the playing field by airing a pro Kerry piece or show the ZSinclair broadcast after the election. Thank you
Mary Ferrara